“As soon as Vassar opened his mouth to sing, he had me. His set was ENERGETIC, full of sauce and a little bit CRAZY. He had the rowdy, ready-to-party crowd with him from the very first song. They sang. They cheered. They chanted. They danced. He had them. And THEY LOVED HIM.” Lora Kaelber, OnMilwaukee.Com

Despite his countless hits, Phil Vassar is an entertainer. His energetic shows have fans of all ages dancing along. Phil never uses a set list and no two shows are the same! Fans dictate the show based on social media requests and pre-show asks. While Phil performs a majority of his songs, he always includes some of his favorites like “Piano Man”, “Oh What a Night”, or whatever gets the crowd energized!
Born and Raised - Lynchberg, VA and attended James Madison University Home – Nashville, TN Signed to - Arista, Universal South, and then started his own label – Rodeowave Greatest Accomplishment – DAD to Haley and Presley Loves - Sports, Working Out, and Volunteering - St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital, Miller Home for Girls, Monroe Carell, Jr. Children’s Hospital at Vanderbilt and the Second Harvest Food Bank – are just a few organizations where Phil spends his time.

His latest project is a video series called “Songs From the Cellar” where Phil invites celebrity friends to enjoy a glass of wine or spirits and jam to tunes live in his in-home wine cellar. Previous guests on the show include John Rich, Mike Tyson and Tommy Shaw (STYX).

Phil is one of a handful of musicians to have multiple hits as a songwriter AND as an artist. He has 26 TOP 40s, 15 Top 10s, 10 Number 1s and 8 Albums. Top songs include Carlene, In a Real Love, Six Pack Summer, For a Little While (Tim McGraw), Right on the Money (Alan Jackson), I’m All Right, Last Day of My Life, Just Another Day in Paradise, American Child, Island Boy (Kenny Chesney), Love is a Beautiful Thing, That’s When I Love You, My Next Thirty Years (Tim McGraw), Bye Bye (Jodee Messina), Little Red Rodeo (Collin Raye), and many more.
