

60th TELETHON OF STARS HEADLINE TALENT

STEVE HORNBEAK & THE MAINSTREET PLAYERS

Throughout the last 28 years, Steve Hornbeak has become a highly sought after musician and vocalist performing and recording with some of the biggest stars in the music business. Steve grew up in the small town of Tamms Illinois and by the age of 24 was on the road playing keyboards and singing with country music superstar Lee Greenwood. Since then Steve spent 10 years on the road with Faith Hill and is currently touring with Grammy Award winning producer, writer and recording artist, Richard Marx, also touring with Rock - N -Roll Hall Of Famer, Felix Cavaliere's Rascals as well as touring with the cast of the ABC hit TV Show, Nashville and Headline News star of Morning Express, Robin Meade. Steve is also on the TV Show Nashville as the keyboard player for the Rayna Jaymes Band played by Connie Britton. Steve has his own band called Steve Hornbeak & The Mainstreet Players that performs at festivals, weddings and corporate events. Steve is also the owner of 326 Productions where he produces and records demos and custom cd's for aspiring artist and song writers. Producing, writing and artist developing is the next step in his career. He has produced projects in his studio for Richard Marx, Journey, Billy Gilman, Jessica Andrews, Dan Hill and many other major artist and songwriters.
